

My family greatly opposes the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. We will disconnect our home phone, and only use a cell phone if this privacy law is abolished. Our home life has been so much more peaceful since the passing of this law.